Crimestoppers

Since 1982, Champlain Valley Crime Stoppers has been helping law enforcement in Vermont do their jobs better. Crime Stoppers actively seeks the cooperation of the public in providing information about crimes in our community. Any information is welcome, even if it seems minor or insignificant. Often small pieces of information are essential to solving complex and complicated crimes. Citizens providing the information can remain anonymous and may receive a cash reward if their information leads to an arrest or successful conclusion of a case.

The many tips, leads and information provided by the public have led to hundreds of arrests for crimes ranging from robbery, assault, larceny, arson, fraud and murder.

If you have information about a crime, please call the Tip Line at 802-864-6666.
